KDOL Honors Employee for Meritorious Service

TOPEKA, Kan. - The Kansas Department of Labor (KDOL) is proud to announce the winner of its Employee Recognition and Award Program for April, Arlene Miller. The KDOL Award Program is designed to recognize individual's efforts that epitomize excellence. The success as an agency depends on each and every employee providing premier service, working in a team environment, producing results with cost control in mind, creativity and innovation, while serving their community. KDOL rewards employees who embrace these ideals as their own, taking them to the highest personal level possible in job performance.

Miller, who is an Auditor in the Liability Unit of the Contributions Division, received the award for Meritorious Service. She was recognized for observing that business addresses were not populating correctly during the time that yearly experience rating notices were being prepared for mailing. Arlene's close attention to detail helped prevent more than 17,000 employers from being affected. Arlene's commitment to excellent customer service and her great communication skills are essential to her exceptional job performance. She serves as a valuable resource and no matter how busy she is with her own tasks, Arlene always finds time to answer questions and mentor her colleagues.
